

---

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

- Associate, Prime Brokerage – Equity Finance, JPMorgan, New York, NY 2009 – present
- Managed international cash capital funding analysis
  - Coordinated pricing for cash and synthetic prime brokerage portfolios
  - Allocated collateral supporting synthetic transactions
- Analyst, Prime Brokerage – Equity Finance, JPMorgan, New York, NY 2008 – 2009
- Analyzed efficient utilization of equity collateral for prime brokerage financing
  - Managed internal reporting covering available collateral and broker-dealer exposure
- Analyst, Strategic Structuring and Transactions, Bear Stearns, New York, NY 2006 – 2008
- Structured derivatives to build tax-advantaged debt-equity hybrid investments
  - Executed proprietary trades, including extensive client interaction
- Evaluation Analyst, Investment Banking, Credit Suisse First Boston, New York, NY Summer 2006
- Analyzed mid-year performance evaluations
  - Transcribed, filed, and carried out other administrative duties as needed
- Research Assistant, Aging and Cognition Laboratory, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA Summer 2004
- Collaborated on research design, coded and analyzed data in Excel
  - Published research findings, presented at a national conference
- Research Assistant, Child Epidemiology Group, Columbia University, New York, NY Summer 2003
- Conducted literature review, drafted sections of grant proposals
  - Published research findings
- Sales & Marketing Department Intern, Koch Records, New York, NY Summer 2002
- Maintained order-tracking databases in Excel
  - Organized advertisement requests

---

EDUCATION

---

Wesleyan University, Middletown, CT

M.A. Psychology 2006

Thesis: “Nonconscious activation can cause false memories:

Experimental control of conscious processes in the DRM task.”

- Ran statistical analysis in Excel and SPSS
- Published research findings
- Designed and gave PowerPoint presentations at national and regional conferences

Honors: John Walkley Prize for Excellence in Psychological Research

GPA: 4.00 / 4.00, GRE: 790M / 650V / 6.0W

B.A. Psychology and Music, with Honors 2005

Thesis: “The music of advertising: Commercials, children, and personal experience.”

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa (Early Induction)

GPA: 3.95 / 4.00, SAT: 780M / 670V

Stuyvesant Specialized High School for Math and Science, New York, NY 2000

Honors: National Honors Society, National Merit Commended Scholar

---

TECHNICAL SKILLS & SECURITIES EXAMS

---

Language: Proficient in Hebrew

Technical: Excel, Access, Word, PowerPoint, Photoshop, HTML and VBA programming

Certifications: Series 7, Series 63